By clicking on a hyperlink, you will leave the NCBA webpage and accordingly you shall be subject to the terms of use, privacy and cookie policies of the other website that you choose to visit. By navigating to an externally linked website on the NCBA webpage, you will be exiting our website and you will be exposed to new terms of use, privacy policy and cookie policies of the website you have visited.

- b. We do not in any way promote, recommend, endorse, guarantee or approve a third party products and services offered through hyperlinks for external webpages. Material or content found in hyperlinks for external websites is not in our control and data processing is in accordance to their privacy policy.

CHANGE OF PURPOSE

- a. We will only use your Personal Data and special category data for the purposes for which we collected it as indicated in this Privacy Policy or for reasons we give you during the collection of the data.
- b. If we need to use your Personal Data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and seek your consent where necessary.
- c. Please note that we may process your Personal Data without your knowledge or consent if this is required or permitted by law.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- a. We may disclose your Personal Data to other entities with the affiliates of NCBA, for legitimate business purposes (including providing services to you and operating our sites and systems), in accordance with applicable law. In addition, we may disclose your Personal Data to:
- i. Government (including law enforcement) authorities and regulators e.g. Central Bank of Kenya;
 - ii. Other financial institutions through which your transactions are processed;
 - iii. Other companies and financial institutions that we work with to provide services to you e.g. Credit card service providers, technology service providers, credit reference bureaus, employers, debt collection agencies and outsourced services vendors; fraud prevention/detection, private investigators, agencies tasked with conducting surveys on behalf of NCBA group;
 - iv. Third parties with accruing legal obligations e.g. Trustees and executors, guarantors, anyone holding a power of attorney to operate an account on your behalf and joint account holders;
 - v. Third parties whom we may engage as partners through mergers, acquisition, asset sales, restructuring or by legal obligation or otherwise;
 - vi. To any of our subsidiaries, new owners, successor entities, or in case of change of business, to the new entities;
 - vii. Third parties who are service providers acting as processors, professional advisers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and those who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services;
 - viii. Restricted or publicly accessible government repository as a verification procedure in compliance with regulations;
 - ix. Regulatory authorities, police or security agencies, courts of law or statutory authorities in response to litigation and demand issued on legal/regulatory grounds in accordance to the law;
 - x. Agencies tasked with conducting surveys on behalf of NCBA;
 - xi. Emergency and disaster response providers in cases where a person's health and safety is at stake when an emergency call is made;
 - xii. Persons involved in delivering NCBA products and services you use or order;
- b. We require all third parties to respect the security of your Personal Data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your Personal Data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

TRANSFER OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE KENYA

- a. We may need to transfer or store your information in another jurisdiction to fulfill a legal obligation, for our legitimate interest and to protect the public interest.
- b. If the other jurisdiction does not have the same level of protection for Personal Data, when we do process the data, we shall put in place appropriate safeguards e.g. contractual commitments to ensure the data is adequately protected.
- c. We ensure your Personal Data is protected by requiring all our related companies to follow the same rules when processing your Personal Data.
- d. Where third parties are based in other jurisdictions, their processing of your Personal Data will involve a transfer of data to their jurisdictions.

HOW WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SECURE

- a. We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your Personal Data from being lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, misused, destroyed, altered or disclosed. NCBA uses technologies (e.g data encryption, firewalls etc.) to protect the security of all customers' data. In addition, we limit access to your Personal Data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your Personal Data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.
- b. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

HOW LONG WE SHALL RETAIN YOUR PERSONAL DATA

- a. We will only retain your Personal Data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your Personal Data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.
- b. To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the Personal Data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your Personal Data, the purposes for which we process your Personal Data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.
- c. By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including contact, identity, financial and transaction data) for a minimum of ten (10) years after they cease being customers. NCBA Bank Kenya PLC is however mandated by the CBK regulations on data retention practices to retain customer data for a period of Seven (7) years. Our internal policy as amended from time to time may also require us to keep customer data for a longer period.

- d. In some circumstances, we will anonymize your Personal Data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

DATA SUBJECT'S RIGHTS

- a. Subject to legal and contractual exceptions, you have rights under applicable laws in relation to your Personal Data. These are listed below:
 - i. Right to be informed that we are collecting your personal information and how we are processing it;
 - ii. Right to rectify your personal data where it is inaccurate or incomplete;
 - iii. Right to withdraw or objection your consent to processing of your personal data. However, we may continue processing your personal data for legitimate interests or legal grounds;
 - iv. Right to erasure and be forgotten; where your personal data will be deleted from our database; noting that we may continue to retain your information if we are entitled to do so or obliged by law;
 - v. Right to access your Personal Data in our possession;
 - vi. Right to not be subjected to profiling or automated decision making data processes in regards to your data. However we may decline your request if we are obliged by law or entitled to do so;
 - vii. Right to request your personal data be processed in a restricted manner. Note that we may continue processing data and reject the request if we are entitled to or legally obliged;
 - viii. Right to data portability in a manner we may deem appropriate such as electronic format;
- b. We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your Personal Data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that Personal Data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.
- c. We try to respond to all legitimate requests within reasonable time. Occasionally it could take us longer if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
